

27th Latin Summer School
January 18 to January 22 2021

Class 1 a
Tutor:
Andrew Miles

LATIN SUMMER SCHOOL MMXXI
Level IA Course Material

The structure of each day will be:

Session I: Review of the Previous Day; Vocabulary and Communication (partly in Latin, partly in English)

Session II: Grammar

Session IV: Comprehension and Translation (which will revise and consolidate material covered in Sessions I & II). There will be some comprehension, some translation and some grammatical analysis

The numbers/headings listed for each Session on each day refer to the material which follows this outline. Reading passages for study during Session IV Monday – Thursday and Session II Friday are listed in order in the Reading Passages document.

Monday XVIII Jan

Session I

- Brief History of the Latin Language
- Roman alphabet; principles of pronunciation
- greetings, introductions
- the Roman Empire

Session II

- verb inflections and conjugations
- present tense, infinitive, imperative, imperfect tense
- questions and negatives

Session IV

- "Imperium Romanum" and Roma"

Tuesday XIX Jan

Session I

- Numbers, numerals
- Dates

Session II

- Nouns: Cases and Declensions

Session IV

- Some Inscriptions and documents

Wednesday XX Jan

Session I

- Past tense narrative

Session II

- Verbs: Perfect Tense

Session IV

- Ennius and the Bayeux Tapestry

Thursday XXI Jan

Session I

- Age, description and qualities

Session II

- Adjectives – agreement and comparison

Session IV

- A little bit of Ethics

Friday XXII Jan

Session I

- Verbs: present participle – formation and agreement
- Participial phrases

Session II

- Some Latin graffiti

- Readings from the Vulgate